A letter from Detroit, dated the 12th ult. ſays, "Yeſterday ſome of the Indians belonging to this place, who had been out on a ſcout againſt the Shawaneſe, returned with the ſcalp of one of their chiefs wives: They were extremely well received here by Col. A gentleman in this city, whoſe only ſon was interred laſt night, appeared at the funeral without any other mourning than a hat-band, and the bearers without ſcarfs.

NEWPORT, JANUARY 7, 1765.

We have advice, that the French are ſettling, with 4000 perſons, a colony at a place called the Triangles, a little to windward of Surrinam: That they claim as far weſtward as the river Marawina, a part of which claim is within a few leagues of ſome Dutch plantations.—This procedure of the French very much alarms their good friends the Dutch, who have ſent an expreſs to the ſtates, with an account of this affair; as alſo another to the commander of this new French colony, to know the reaſon of their forming this ſettlement.—This ſtep is the more alarming on account of the great number of wild negroes on the back of the Dutch plantations, who, though at peace now, may perhaps be made the ſame uſe of again the Dutch, as the Indians on this continent have been againſt the Britiſh ſettlements.

JACOB MOTTE, Public-Treasurer.

CHARLES-TOWN, FEBRUARY 9, 1765.

SATURDAY last arrived here, by way of Boston, and yesterday set out for Augusta, the Rev. Mr. Samuel Frink, appointed missionary for St. Paul's parish, Augusta.

Same day arrived here, Capt. Cornelius Hinson, from Jamaica; who on the 20th past fell in with the wreck of the ship Dolphin, of and for Liverpoole, from Jamaica, George Johnston master, which had been stranded the night before, near Salt-Key, on Crooked-Island. Captain Hinson saved some of the cargo, sails and rigging, and took off twenty of the people, which he brought with him. Capt. John Seymour, in the sloop Phœnix, of and for Bermuda, also saved some of the cargo and people, which he has carried thither.

The 23d ult. sailed over Winyaw bar, for London, the ship Sea-Nymph, Capt. John Grant, having on board one hundred and five casks, containing forty-two thousand, nine hundred and nine pounds of INDIGO, besides many hogsheads and bundles of deer skins, &c. being the richest cargo ever sent from that port, in one bottom, since its first establishment.

On Tuesday last died, Mr. Thomas Lamboll, only son of Thomas Lamboll, Esq.

NEW-MARKET RACES.

On Tuesday the 5th instant, the horses came in as under, viz.

	1st Heat.	2d Heat.
Doctor Murray's horse SKIM, aged, carrying ten stone,	1	1
Mr. Charles Elliott's horse BABRAHAM, rising 6, weight 8 stone and 4 pounds,	2	3
Mr. Mayrant's mare, DUTCHESS, rising 5, weight 7 stone and 4 pounds—which was four pound extraordinary, on account of her being total blood, bred in England; and came over with Skim,	3	2
Mr. Ralph Izard's estate's horse, BRUTUS, rising 6, weight 8 stone and 4 pounds,	4	4
Captain Ainslie's roan horse	dist.

And though the victorious SKIM did not drop his foot, yet he was hard pressed by the mare.—It may be truly said there was good running that day.

Odds at starting 6 to 4, the field against Skim—Even money betwixt Skim and Babraham—5 to 4, and 6 to 4, Babraham against Brutus—7 to 4 the field against Babraham—and 5 to 1, the mare did not win.

Wednesday the 6th, the colt's plate was won by Thomas Lynch, Esq's; roan colt Havana, rising 3, beating the rest hollow. They came in as follow, viz.

Mr. Lynch's roan Havana,	1	1
Mr. Fenwicke's bay Tarquin,	2	2
Col. Singelton's roan Brilliant,	2	dist.
Capt. Ainslie's roan,	dist.

Odds at starting, 6 to 4, Tarquin against the field; and the knowing-ones were really taken in.

The same day, for the SWEEP-STAKES, there was excellent sport, and won by

Captain Ainslie's roan, who came in	2	1	1
Mr. Parsons's Filly,	1	2	2
Mr. Hartley's grey horse,	3	3	3

The Filly was the favourite, but obliged to give it up, after a resolute struggle, to the roan.

As much hath been said concerning the great match between the horses of his royal highness the duke of Cumberland, and his grace the duke of Grafton, at New-Market; we beg leave to inform the public, that the duke's HEROD beat his grace's ANTINOUS, not Antonius. Mr. South rode Herod, and Mr. Pilkington Antinous. The match was for 1000 guineas, 4 miles over the Beacon-Course, and won by Herod by only half a neck. Fifty thousand pounds sterling was supposed to be depending on this match, which was run on Friday the 26th of October last. The odds, about eleven to ten in favour of Antinous.

At New-Market, the 14th of May 1764, Antinous was matched for a considerable sum against a horse of Mr. Pratt's, fifty guineas forfeit, which Mr. Pratt paid, his grace having challenged to run any horse in England, north of the Trent, weight nine stone each, for 1000 guineas.

At Ascot-Heath, the 25th of June 1764, his royal highness the duke's Herod (got by Tartar, and bred by Sir William St. Quintin) weight eight stone and thirteen pounds, beat the marquis of Rockingham's TOM TINKER, weight eight stone and seven pounds, four miles, for 1000 guineas. Odds at starting four to one on Herod.

Monday October 1st, 1764, the duke of Grafton's Antinous, weight eight stone and twelve pounds, beat his royal highness's horse Gift, weight eight stone and six pounds, for six hundred guineas.

The King's-Plate horse, that won York, Lincoln, and New-Market, weight twelve stone, is the property of the hon. Francis Charters, Esq; and valued at twelve hundred guineas. He is a grey, and named Favourite.

A letter from Detroit, dated the 12th ult. says, "Yesterday some of the Indians belonging to this place, who had been out on a scout against the Shawanese, returned with the scalp of one of their chiefs wives: They were extremely well received here by Col. Cambell, our commandant, who made them several presents, with which they seemed well contented,

A gentleman in this city, whose only son was interred last night, appeared at the funeral without any other mourning than a hat-band, and the bearers without scarfs.

NEWPORT, JANUARY 7, 1765.

We have advice, that the French are settling, with 4000 persons, a colony at a place called the Triangles, a little to windward of Surrinam: That they claim as far westward as the river Marawina, a part of which claim is within a few leagues of some Dutch plantations.—This procedure of the French very much alarms their good friends the Dutch, who have sent an express to the states, with an account of this affair; as also another to the commander of this new French colony, to know the reason of their forming this settlement.—This step is the more alarming on account of the great number of wild negroes on the back of the Dutch plantations, who, though at peace now, may perhaps be made the same use of again the Dutch, as the Indians on this continent have been against the British settlements.

JACOB MOTTE, Public-Treasurer.

CHARLES-TOWN, FEBRUARY 9, 1765.

SATURDAY last arrived here, by way of Boston, and yesterday set out for Augusta, the Rev. Mr. Samuel Frink, appointed missionary for St. Paul's parish, Augusta.

Same day arrived here, Capt. Cornelius Hinson, from Jamaica; who on the 20th past fell in with the wreck of the ship Dolphin, of and for Liverpoole, from Jamaica, George Johnston master, which had been stranded the night before, near Salt-Key, on Crooked-Island. Captain Hinson saved some of the cargo, sails and rigging, and took off twenty of the people, which he brought with him. Capt. John Seymour, in the sloop Phœnix, of and for Bermuda, also saved some of the cargo and people, which he has carried thither.

The 23d ult. sailed over Winyaw bar, for London, the ship Sea-Nymph, Capt. John Grant, having on board one hundred and five casks, containing forty-two thousand, nine hundred and nine pounds of INDIGO, besides many hogsheads and bundles of deer skins, &c. being the richest cargo ever sent from that port, in one bottom, since its first establishment.

On Tuesday last died, Mr. Thomas Lamboll, only son of Thomas Lamboll, Esq.

NEW-MARKET RACES.

On Tuesday the 5th instant, the horses came in as under, viz.

	1st Heat.	2d Heat.
Doctor Murray's horse SKIM, aged, carrying ten stone,	1	1
Mr. Charles Elliott's horse BABRAHAM, rising 6, weight 8 stone and 4 pounds,	2	3
Mr. Mayrant's mare, DUTCHESS, rising 5, weight 7 stone and 4 pounds—which was four pound extraordinary, on account of her being total blood, bred in England; and came over with Skim,	3	2
Mr. Ralph Izard's estate's horse, BRUTUS, rising 6, weight 8 stone and 4 pounds,	4	4
Captain Ainslie's roan horse	dist.

And though the gentlemen SKIM did not drop his foot, yet he was hard pressed by the mare.—It may be truly said there was good running that day.

Odds at starting 6 to 4, the field against Skim—Even money betwixt Skim and Babraham—5 to 4, and 6 to 4, Babraham against Brutus—7 to 4 the field against Babraham—and 5 to 1, the mare did not win.

Wednesday the 6th, the colt's plate was won by Thomas Lynch, Esq's; roan colt Havana, rising 3, beating the rest hollow. They came in as follow, viz.

Mr. Lynch's roan Havana,	1	1
Mr. Fenwicke's bay Tarquin,	2	2
Col. Singelton's roan Brilliant,	2	dist.
Capt. Ainslie's roan,	dist.

Odds at starting, 6 to 4, Tarquin against the field; and the knowing-ones were really taken in.

The same day, for the SWEEP-STAKES, there was excellent sport, and won by

Captain Ainslie's roan, who came in	1	1 1
Mr. Parsons's Filly,	2	2 2
Mr. Hartley's grey horse,	3	3 3

The Filly was the favourite, but obliged to give it up, after a resolute struggle, to the roan.

As much hath been said concerning the great match between the horses of his royal highness the duke of Cumberland, and his grace the duke of Grafton, at New-Market; we beg leave to inform the public, that the duke's HEROD beat his grace's ANTINOUS, not Antinous. Mr. South rode Herod, and Mr. Pilkington Antinous. The match was for 1000 guineas, 4 miles over the Beacon-Course, and won by Herod by only half a neck. Fifty thousand pounds sterling was supposed to be depending on this match, which was run on Friday the 26th of October last. The odds, about eleven to ten in favour of Antinous.

At New-Market, the 14th of May 1764, Antinous was matched for a considerable sum against a horse of Mr. Pratt's, fifty guineas forfeit, which Mr. Pratt paid, his grace having challenged to run any horse in England, north of the Trent, weight nine stone each, for 1000 guineas.

At Alcot-Heath, the 25th of June 1764, his royal highness the duke's Herod (got by Tartar, and bred by Sir William St. Quintin) weight eight stone and thirteen pounds, beat the marquis of Rockingham's TOM TINKER, weight eight stone and seven pounds, four miles, for 1000 guineas. Odds at starting four to one on Herod.

Monday October 1st, 1764, the duke of Grafton's Antinous, weight eight stone and twelve pounds, beat his royal highness's horse Gift, weight eight stone and six pounds, for six hundred guineas.

The King's-Plate horse, that won York, Lincoln, and New-Market, weight twelve stone, is the property of the hon. Francis Charters, Esq; and valued at twelve hundred guineas. He is a grey, and named Favourite.
